

WINDOW ON SPELTHORNE

Come to see our display
@
Spelthorne
Museum

Display by members to complete their project Surviving
the Stone Age

SPARCS is a group for 9 - 16 years old that offers practical, fun, and creative ways of learning about archaeology and history. SPARCS has been running since 2003 with a variety of local project-based activities ranging from the Stone Age to the seventeenth century. We meet once a month in Spelthorne museum, at the back of Staines library.
